Description

Extended product overview

The Calypso 2 Deluxe Chair with Adjustable Arms is the perfect office chair for those who value comfort and functionality. The Asynchro mechanism allows for independent adjustment of height, back, and seat angle, ensuring that you can find the perfect position for your body. The adjustable arms provide additional support for your arms and shoulders, reducing strain and fatigue. The high back office chair provides excellent lumbar support, reducing the risk of back pain. The star base and 5 castors provide stability and mobility, allowing you to move around your workspace with ease. The 100% man-made office chair fabric is durable and easy to clean, ensuring that your chair will look great for years to come. Invest in the Calypso 2 Deluxe Chair with Adjustable Arms for a comfortable and productive workday.
