Description

Extended product overview

The Calypso Ergo 2 Lever Office Chair With Lumbar Pump. With its 'permanent contact back' mechanism, this office chair provides maximum comfort and support for long hours of sitting. The deep cushioned seat and upholstered office chair fabric ensure that you stay comfortable throughout the day. The high back office chair provides additional support for your neck and shoulders, reducing the risk of strain and injury. The lumbar pump feature allows you to adjust the chair to your specific needs, providing targeted support for your lower back. Made from 100% man-made office chair fabric, this chair is durable and easy to clean. Invest in the Calypso Ergo 2 Lever Office Chair With Lumbar Pump for a comfortable and productive workday.
